Guangdong Public Security Protection Technology Association

Guangdong Public Security Protection Technology Association was established on 26 September 2006. Under the guidance of Guangdong Provincial Public Security Department, the company has held a series of events to promote and expand the safety and security industry in China. The association also publishes its own magazine "Guangdong Safety & Security" and online portal afsjw.com to provide the industry with the latest government policies and the association's development. Through these platforms, the association members can stay abreast with the industry updates and strengthen the connection with each other. Guangdong Public Security Protection Technology Association will continue to enforce the cooperation between local and international industries, and to contribute for the development in the safety and security industry and the public security sector.

Guangzhou Guangya Messe Frankfurt Co Ltd

In October 2005, Messe Frankfurt and Guangzhou Guangya Exhibition Company joined forces by forming a new company called "Guangzhou Guangya Messe Frankfurt Co Ltd". Today, the joint-venture company is the organiser of Guangzhou International Lighting Exhibition, the biggest lighting fair in Asia and the second largest in the world, as well as Guangzhou Electrical Building Technology, Asiamold, SPS – Industrial Automation Fair Guangzhou and Wire & Cable Guangzhou. Apart from the above Guangzhou fairs, the joint-venture company also stages Shanghai Smart Home Technology, Shanghai Intelligent Building Technology, Shanghai International Lighting Fair and PCIM Asia in Shanghai.

It's time to join China's intelligent security evolution

In line with the rising global demands for safety and security products, along with the rapid growth of IoT across the industry worldwide, local development in China is also following suit with more intelligent, innovative and exciting products. Consequently, this transformation of the modern security market will be reflected at Guangzhou Public Security Technology 2018, a vital and leading industry event for security and safety products and solutions in Southern China.

The 2018 is expected to welcome more than 200 quality manufacturers and solution providers of the very latest safety and security technologies. More than 10,000 visitors representing the government's public security department, systems integrators and research and development bodies are also expected to attend.

Combined forces for an enhanced show experience

For the first time, this edition will see Guangzhou Guangya Messe Frankfurt become the show's co-organiser. As a subsidiary of Messe Frankfurt GmbH, one of the world's leading trade fair organisers with its own exhibition grounds, the company's global safety and security trade fairs have gained a strong foothold in international major and emerging markets. These include the flagship trade fair Secutech in Taipei and its sister fairs in Bangkok, Ho Chi Minh City and Mumbai.

Together with the promotion of Secutech brand shows, Guangdong Public Security Technology can enhance its internationality by the brand's global resources.
